

Processing your own tax issues

Information on how to process many issues on your own through the Internet (www.rsk.is), e-mail (rsk@rsk.is) or get help by calling tel. No. 442 1000

Tax returns for individuals

If you need to submit your tax returns you can do this through the service website, www.skattur.is.

- When entering the service website, begin by logging on.
- We recommend that you use electronic ID to log onto the service website.
- Further information on electronic ID can be found on www.rsk.is (Here).
- You can also use a web key to enter the service website. If you do not have a web key, you can apply for one on the service website, www.skattur.is, select "Get web key" and choose whether you wish to have it sent to your online banking account or to your domicile.

Although the general deadline to submit tax returns has passed, tax returns can still be submitted and it is best to do so as soon as possible.

We draw your attention to the simple instructions on tax returns in English and Polish that can be found on www.rsk.is (Here).

A certified copy of the tax return

You can get a certified copy of your tax returns from the service web, www.skattur.is. For further details, see instructions on www.rsk.is (Here)

If you require further information, you can send an e-mail to framtal@rsk.is or call tel. No. 442 1000/442 1414.

Real owners of companies and associations

The deadline for registering the real owners of companies and associations expired on 1 March. It is still possible, however, to resolve the issue without fines and the last chance to do so is 30 March 2020.

There is a considerable volume of information on www.rsk.is about the rules that apply to the registration of real owners of both companies (Here and here) and associations (Here).

On www.rsk.is you will also find instructions on the deregistration/dissolution of associations as many older associations have long since ceased operations but their deregistration has not been completed. (Here).

If you require further information, call tel. No 4421000.

Companies Registry

There is a great deal of information and instructions on the establishment of companies, real owners, changes and dissolution of companies on www.rsk.is (Here).

Certificates

If you require certificates from the Companies Registry, you will find instructions by following this link: (Here). Certificate number is RSK 17.60.

Requests for data/certificates are to be sent to fyrirtaekjaskra@rsk.is and are to be paid for in accordance with the pricelist published on www.rsk.is (Here).

Payments may be made through Íslandsbanki: 0515-26-723000, ID No.: 540269-6029.

System ID Nos.

Form RSK 17.62 is to be used to apply for a system ID No. due to Board membership (Here). The application must be completed as its form dictates and is to be sent to the Companies Registry together with notification of the establishment of a company or notification of changes if the party in question is being registered.

If you require further information, call tel. No. 442 1000.

Payment of public charges

The due date of the deducted withholding tax, for wage payments to wage earners and the presumptive income of the employer, is the first day of each month after the end of the settlement period and the final due date is on the 15th of the same month.

- For example, the due date of the deducted withholding tax for February is 1 March and the final due date is 15 March.
- Employers who send withholding tax electronically receive an e-mail 2-3 days before the final due date reminding them of their payment obligations.
- An invoice is posted to the Internet banking account of those who pay electronically while others must settle with the debt collector of the Treasury (0001-26-25111 and ID No. 540269-6459).
- If a claim is not paid on the final due date it is cancelled from the Internet banking account and a new balance claim/claims are posted with default penalties that vary according to the type of claim.
- More information on the payment of various charges may be read: (Here)

If you require further information, call tel. No. 442 1000.
